ENROLLING YOUR CHILD IN SCHOOL

This form should be completed if your child is starting school for the first time, or if you have recently moved/are moving into a new area.

The form requests important information, necessary for the safety and wellbeing of your child at school. The Highland Council has a legal responsibility to ensure that this information is up-to-date. We believe that all children are of equal value and are entitled to the highest standards of provision throughout their education. The information that you provide will ensure we continue to offer an education service that meets the needs of all children and young people.

Some of this information must be shared with the Scottish Government for statistical purposes and for the allocation of funding. No children will be named in this information and it will be impossible to find out about any child from the numbers. The numbers will be used to make sure that all children have the education that best suits them.

The information provided will be maintained in accordance with Data Protection legislation by the relevant school staff that need access to it, and a limited number of staff within the authority who provide appropriate support. Information on all pupils is held on the SEEMiS management information system within schools.

Your child's original birth certificate and proof of address must be presented together with this form.

This form can also be completed and submitted online at www.highland.gov.uk/enrol.

Data Protection

The information you have provided on this form (and the supporting evidence, where applicable) is collected and used by The Highland Council as described in the Privacy Notice 'Enrol your Child at a School' in Appendix 1.

The information will be held securely by the Council and will be treated as confidential except where the law requires it to be disclosed. The Council may check information provided by you, or information about you provided by a third party, with other information held by us. We may also get information from certain third parties or share your information with them in order to check its accuracy, prevent or detect crime, protect public funds or where required by law. In order to improve service delivery, we routinely exchange information with NHS Highland. This will only be done if necessary and all agencies will keep this information confidential.

I confirm I have read the Privacy Notice at Appendix 1

Appendix 1: Privacy Notice - Enrol your Child at a School or ELC setting

Description

In accordance with the Education (Scotland) Act 1980, the provision of education is the responsibility of local authorities. Education is provided at early learning and childcare, primary and secondary levels in both mainstream and special schools. The local authority, schools and early learning establishments process information about children and young people in order to help deliver education and care. Education has to be flexible to fit individual needs, be tailored to 'age, ability and aptitude' and personal information is required for this purpose. The data held by schools and educational establishment includes contact details, curriculum assessment results, attendance information, characteristics such as ethnic group, additional support needs and any relevant medical information. This data is required to:

- Communicate effectively with parents and guardians and promote parental engagement
- Support learning and teaching
- Monitor and report on progress and attendance
- Provide appropriate pastoral care
- Provide additional support needs and medical care
- Evaluate and develop education policy and strategies

If you don't give us your information

We need the information to allow us to enrol your child in a school. If you do not provide the necessary information your child may not be able to access education.

Conditions for processing personal information

We need to process this personal information to fulfil our obligations under the Education (Scotland) Act 1980 and other legislation such as the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child, Standards in Scotland's Schools etc Act 2000, Child and Young People (Scotland) Act 2014, The Equality Act 2010, The Education (Scotland) Act 2016, Gaelic Language (Scotland) Act 2005, The Young People's Involvement in Education and Training (Provision of Information) (Scotland) Order 2014 and NHS/ATOS Data Sharing, The Pupils' Educational Records (Scotland) Regulations 2003.

Your rights

- Access to personal data
- Rectification of personal data
- Erasure of personal data
- Restrict processing of personal data
- Object to the processing of personal data

Who we share your information with

Depending on the age of your child we may share information where necessary with Scottish Government and our partner agencies such as NHS, Highlife Highland, Skills Development Scotland, SQA and other bodies responsible for administering services to children and young people. This is to support statistical reporting, medical and immunisation provision, health and wellbeing, careers and examination presentations.

Data is processed on behalf of the Council by IT systems providers and research consultants (for statistical analysis).

Highland Council may check the details provided for enrolment against records held by the Council for the purposes of administering Council Tax and Housing Benefit. This is to ensure that the pupil named on the enrolment form is allocated a place at a school in accordance with the catchment area as determined by The Highland Council. This check will also be used to validate the information held for the purposes of administering Council Tax, Housing Benefit and other entitlements.

Basic information, such as Highland Council provided Google email addresses, may be shared with educational software/App providers to enable accounts to be created for pupils as part of the Council's use of educational software to enhance learning and teaching.

How long we hold your information

Your information will be held for 5 years after the pupil leaves education.

Automated processing

Your personal information is not subject to automated decision making or profiling.

Appendix 2: Armed Forces Support

Highland is committed to supporting children and young people from Armed Forces Families. At times your child may want some help or you may feel some extra support could be helpful. We focus on developing a pupil's resilience. This means building on their strengths and the support in their lives to help them manage any problems.

How we can help:

Direct support for the child

Emotional support

Family support

Strategic planning across Highland

Due to the unique characteristics of service life whether regular, veteran or reserve, Highland Schools are committed to supporting the needs of your children and young people and family.

If we know, we can help

Highland Council has signed the Armed Forces Covenant and supports the service community Highland wide.

In Highland there is the Military Liaison Group (Education). This provides a unique partnership of services and agencies that come together regularly to plan and provide support to children of Armed Forces Families in the educational setting.

Highland has a wide network of support for Armed Forces Families.

Contact Louise Kinnear, Promoting Positive Relationships Coordinator who is the educational link for Armed Forces families: louise.kinnear2@highland.gov.uk

We are committed to our strong relationships with the Armed Forces in Highland.
